What We're Learning This Week

Reading

This week we finished our story called "City Green". We are very excited to begin our unit on poetry after spring break!

Writing

We had the best time learning all about adding details to our writing. We watched an "Exact Instructions" video that taught us the importance of being specific!

We are so excited to begin writing our own poems after spring break!

Math

The GATE Math students have been working hard on estimating and three and four digit subtraction with regrouping and across zeros. We will finish this chapter after spring break and then will begin our unit on multiplication!
